

WPGX airs 2.5 hours daily M-F of local talk and information programs, in a non-news format. We routinely back all local education initiatives, every charitable event in town with free production and commercial time. The FCC has over regulated our industry under the current administration. Enough.